MEET VANESSA

I love helping busy Pre-K and Preschool teachers plan effective and engaging lessons, create fun, playful learning centers, and gain confidence in the classroom. As a public Pre-K teacher with 20+ years of classroom teaching experience, I'm committed to helping you teach better, save time, stress less, and live more. I hope this resource will help you with lesson planning and give you a better idea of what I'm all about at Pre-K Pages and Teaching Trailblazers.

If you want more help teaching better, saving time, or living more, Teaching Trailblazers is my full-support solution for Pre-K teachers who want to bring their A-Game to their students...and still have a life.

As a member, you can get the professional development + full curriculum + research-backed activities + smart shortcuts + community + mentorship that will help you become the teacher you've always wanted to be…

THANKSGIVING RACE TO THE TOP

Prep

Cut apart the large pictures. Insert in a pocket die or attach to the sides of a square tissue box.

Make copies of the recording sheet, one for each player. Make copies of the "old lady" markers; each player will need several.

Optional: Instead of the old lady markers, provide dot markers or pencils to make marks.

Directions

Give each child one of the recording sheets and several old lady markers.

Ask students to take turns rolling the cube and recording their rolls.

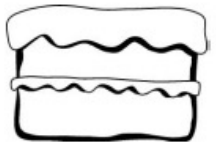

Recording can be done as a group (all children record each roll) or individually (children record only their rolls).

When one column reaches the top, stop and compare the columns. Which has the least? Which are the same (equal)?

This game goes along with one of my favorite Thanksgiving books, I Know an Old Lady Who Swallowed a Pie by Alison Jackson. Use this game after reading the book.
